Housing Authority of the County of Monterey receives national award for

SALINAS, Calif. - The Housing Authority of the County of Monterey has been named a 2007 recipient of the National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials (NAHRO) Merit awards for its work in Administrative Innovation and Community Revitalization.

The awards recognizes outstanding achievement in the housing and community development programs throughout the nation, and was presented to James Nakashima, Executive Director of the Housing Authority of the County of Monterey at the Pacific Southwest NAHRO conference held in Monterey in early May. The awards were presented in recognition of the Housing Authority's Disaster Preparedness Web Site, the Revitalization of a Vacant Office Building, and Force Account Stretching to Prevent Injuries programs.
